

Spring- Themed Sentences to Expand

By Laura Candler

Do your students have trouble writing interesting sentences? If so, use these spring-themed task cards as starter sentences for them to expand with details. These sentences go with Sentence Go Round, a resource which includes complete directions and printables for the activity. You can also find the directions on Corkboard Connections in my article, Teaching Kids to Write Super Sentences.

The first page in this freebie has spring sentences that deal with nature, and the second page has spring outdoor activities. The next two pages are B&W versions of the sentences. The final page has information about some of my other resources you may enjoy!
